CLOTHING: We recommend wearing layered, informal clothing and comfortable non-skid shoes. It's also good to pack a water repellent jacket and sunglasses.

FOOD: There is a snack bar on board to purchase snack food items.

BEVERAGES: Coffee and tea are complimentary self service on each deck. There is a full service bar on board. Cocktails and a variety of non-alcoholic beverages are available for purchase in the galley. Under State Law, it is illegal to bring your own liquor aboard the vessel.

CHILDREN: Busy crew members appreciate conscientious parents that ensure the safety of their children and comfort of other passengers. We recommend that baby strollers be left in your vehicle.

HOMELAND SECURITY: Weapons of any kind are prohibited on board. Coolers, luggage and large hand carry bags are not permitted. Backpacks and carry-ons are subject to search.

Driving to Whittier

From Anchorage take the Seward Highway southbound for approximately 50 miles. Make a left turn at the Portage Glacier sign and drive approximately 7 miles to the Anton Anderson Memorial Tunnel. The fee at the toll booth is $12.00 per standard vehicle. Larger vehicles may cost more.

You'll arrive in Whittier just after exiting the tunnel. The parking lot is located just past the railroad awning, and over the railroad tracks. There will be a gravel lot on the right hand side, where there will be a parking attendant to collect $5 CASH from you to park for the entire day.

IMPORTANT INFORMATION
The International Cruise Ship Terminal is a restricted area. Only international cruise ship passengers are permitted entrance. They do not provide facilities for day cruise passengers.
